We want our customer to read terms and conditions regarding these agreements and we make sure that you will get each benefit included in these agreements.

Quality Product

Our range of products follows food standards by a process of the finest grade of ingredients. For assurance, we always deliver quality reports to the customer.

We fetch our all products from all top most manufacturers of salt, our standard process involves a quality agreement between both. Before final dispatch, we also examine manufacturer quality for a final checkup from our quality expert.

However, we can apply certain changes in our standard product like chemical content, physical grain size or in certain cases process precautions, etc. It also subjected to product applications or market. Here, all changes have to be within the rules and regulations of the country.

In some cases, minimum charges may be applied which confine by customization of product, extra material or process involve in manufacturing, excessive accuracy.

Our range of products follows food standards by a process of the finest grade of ingredients. For assurance, we always deliver quality reports to the customer.

On-Time Delivery

On Time delivery is measurable, but very hard to calculate or even percentage it, we are happy to have a strong link with logistics and documentation both.

Our metrics to measure involves the delivery of documents or goods with agreed quality and limit date. Export involves separate date for each task, for example, Request Date, Dock Date, Delivery Date, Dock Date.

Although each date has a specific meaning, they usually interchange terms. Therefore, we provide a schedule for each task, this helps the buyer and seller to strive to settle on the same level, to avoid confusion. We have optimized supply chain support us to ensure quality product processing, reliable delivery, more repeated customers.

Export Packing

Our export packing criteria depend on the kind of product, transportation medium, and facility at the destination port or airport.

Usually, shipment through vessel requires strong packing with moisture protection, Strong packing also helps in rough handling or in handled and re-handled more in transportation modes.

Air cargo shipment requires a less robust export packing than vessel shipments because the goods transit through air cargo are less bulky and lightweight. However, on high altitude, there are many changes in weather parameters like Air temperature, Air pressure, Humidity, etc.

Shipments made between connected countries may often treat as domestic unless transportation involves multiple modes. In such cases, damage proof packing must require to increase protection against multiple handling.

Effective Sourcing

Our expert knowledge about the market enable us to source the best quality products within the competitive rates.

Our sourcing differentiates us from the market crowd, we have high value for it, it's obvious that sourcing is key to the high-quality cost-effective product.

It also increases the security of goods quality and investment. Most importantly, it cuts unnecessary costing which ultimately reliable to our buyer.

1. Market Criteria

We act as Exporter - Buyer - Trader to meet importer's demand, we utilize our resources to analyze our product condition in the market and we spend very high funds to find out the easiest possible solutions.

2. Market Standard

We standardize the market by examining various features like Accessibility, Quality, Cost, Punctuality, Customer Approach, etc. These all our crucial factors for long term business with any firm.

Full Support

We are happy to support customer for any query regarding our product, pricing or process. We are continually involved throughout (fully occupied in) process.
